

Questions: GLOBAL TRENDS IN EARLY CHILDHOOD DEVELOPMENT

ECCE Data:

- 1. Background: Data is becoming one of the most important commercial resources on the planet. And companies are keenly leveraging it to gain a competitive edge. Back in 2008, a survey revealed that only 3 out of 10 most valuable enterprises were taking a data-driven approach to solve their challenges. Today, that number has increased to 7 out of 10 companies.(Yourstory.com).
- 1. Question: Beyond the quick catch approach at first go, what we need to consider to ensure more reliable data for ECD policy, programs and practice?

From Data to Action:

- 1. Background: Social and Human development organizations produced large volumes of data every day, most of which do not get to be organized and used effectively. Most interestingly, about 68 percent of enterprise data remains unused (Yourstory.com).
- 1. Question: In a world where there is so much demand for data, and very little use of data for decision making, policy formulation, and programing, how can global ECD maximize the use of data for policy, program and practice?
